

COL Debora Theall
Project Manager
Installation Information Infrastructure
Communications and Capabilities (I3C2)

COL Debora Theall enlisted in the U.S. Army in 1983 and was commissioned as a Quartermaster officer in 1989. She transitioned to the Acquisition Corps in 1999. Throughout her career, she has served in positions from the tactical to the strategic level in Germany, Korea, Honduras, Iraq as well as CONUS assignments at Fort Bragg and in Washington D.C.

COL Theall's major assignments as an Acquisition professional include Assistant Product Manager, Information Technology Systems, Pentagon Renovation, Pentagon, Washington, D.C.; Product Manager, DoD Biometrics, Fort Belvoir, Va.; Executive Officer, Army CIO-G6, Pentagon, Washington, D.C.; and Chief of Staff,

Iraq Security Assistance Mission, USF-I, Baghdad, Iraq.

COL Theall's awards and decorations include the Bronze Star Medal, Meritorious Service Medal (6th OLC), Joint Service Commendation Medal, Army Commendation Medal (5th OLC), and Army Achievement Medal (3rd OLC).

She has a Bachelor's Degree in Business Management from Campbell University in Buies Creek, N.C. where she received her commission. COL Theall holds three master degrees to include a Masters in Business Management from Kent State University, Ohio; a Master's of Science in Information Technology from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, Blacksburg, Va.; and a Master's of Science in National Resource Strategy from the Industrial College of the Armed Forces, Fort McNair, Washington, D.C. She is Acquisition Level III in Program Management and has completed Acquisition Basic, Advanced, and Senior level courses.